MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy General Counsel

ATTENTION:

FROM:

Executive Officer to the DDA

SUBJECT: Directorate of Administration Personnel who participated in the Rewald litigation

1. Per your request, following is a list of Directorate of Administration (DA) personnel who participated in the Rewald litigation. While there were many DA employees who made significant contributions to this effort, there was a varying degree of participation; therefore, I have listed them in three groups. Group A consists of those DA employees who assisted with this litigation during its entire duration of more than two years. Group B consists of those DA employees who made a significant contribution to this litigation. And, finally Group C consists of five organizational units in the Office of Logistics that provided significant support to the Rewald litigation. This support was a group effort by these five units and it is not possible to single out particular individuals.
